

Conference - Building Sustainable Results

Overview

Council of the Marble Star™ highlights the issues surrounding personal effectiveness. Participants take responsibility for producing quality results in the midst of uncertainty, lack of direction, competition and a changing environment. While some teams focus solely on results, others socialise and lose the focus of achieving a productive outcome. The experience teaches that combining the skills of being productive with the skills of building and maintaining relationships creates a competitive edge that leads to success.

The Experience

Archeologists worldwide are thrilled to have uncovered ancient artifacts that demystify King Arthur's Camelot. Share in the discovery of Merlin's personal journal which outlines the key to Arthur's victorious reign. By combining commercial capability and cultural skills, Merlin recruited Elders to sit on the Council of the Marble Star.™

Participants will have the opportunity to take part in "The Challenge of Excelleron™" exactly as it took place back in the days of Camelot. They will see how villagers became elite members of King Arthur's court by competing, trading, negotiating and working together. Experiencing the challenges and rewards of real win-win negotiating, participants will learn how to achieve best results through productive relationships.
